

Brief Synopsis
The GMW Squad

Twin werewolf newborns were abandoned in a basket on the steps of a church in a small village in Romania. They were cared for by the parish priest and a nun who grew to love them. Knowing that the "pups" were not dogs or ordinary wolves, the priest knew that he'd have to place them on a reserve or release them into the forest. But he didn't have to worry very long about their destiny – they were pup-napped by a trio of evil men who sold them to a mad scientist at a research institute in the United States. After growing big – very big and strong – the twins are able to escape from the institute and bring the criminals who stole them to justice. The twins together with three near-wolves that the scientist had created form an elite unit under US Special Forces. They vow to bring evil-doers to justice and to always be a good force in the world.
