

Brief Synopsis
Revelation

Lucifer has betrayed his Father and his brethren Archangels. Now Michael, who is most like the Father, must lead the Archangels in defeating Lucifer who is scheming to take over Earth. Michael, who was closest to Lucifer, finds the task a challenge because of his feelings for his traitorous brother but he is devoted to the Father whose will shall be done.

It is the End of Days on earth; Lucifer will soon unleash legions of demons and beasts upon mankind. He is acutely aware that the Father has chosen a special girl to bear the Son in the Second Coming. Lucifer has given orders to bring the girl and the Archangel Michael to him so he can have the pleasure of destroying his brother, the girl and the child that she is bearing.

Michael and the Archangels rely upon the Pope, the US Ambassador to the Holy See and man's mighty militaries to help combat the pure evil that is dead set to destroy mankind, rule earth and prevent the Second Coming.
