

Ruben's Purpose

Brief Synopsis

Teenager Ruben Gomez is wakened one night in his windowless room by a loud demonic laughter. He holds his hands over his ears but the sound is earsplitting. He sees no source for the laughter. Later he realizes... the laughter was in his head. When the laughter stops, he rolls over and tries to sleep. He is terrified by the incident and focuses on an old Mickey Mouse night light that is the only light in the room. Unknown to him, a winged demon with glowing yellow eyes looms behind him.

That incident is just the start of Ruben's ordeal. In the end he realizes that he is being possessed by demons. He also realizes that he had been possessed by this evil most of his life. As things escalate and the presence of the evil in his life is undeniable, he asks "Why me?! Why Me!" Through his faith, Ruben eventually answers that questions and learns what his purpose is.
