

TOOTH GALAXY MISSION

Brief Synopsis

Dr. Astrodent has been fighting Dr. Decay and his evil demons for years. He has trained his two teenaged kids well and is passing the mantle of tooth safety on to Ginger and Sammy who he has dubbed the Health Captains. They cruise the small Tooth Galaxy which is adjacent to the Milky Way looking for teeth that need help or for any trouble that Dr. Decay may be brewing up. The two kids have a lot to be on the lookout for—there's the Tartar Terror, AstroVirus, AstroBacteria, AstroGerms and a league of thugs that are dangers to the beautiful white teeth of the galaxy.

But there are new perils; Dr. Decay now plans an attack on the teeth of the kids of Planet Earth where Dr. Astrodent is holding one of his seminars on dental health. Ginger and Sammy bring BrokenTooth and DecayedTooth to the seminar where their father can treat them. Everyone is terrified when Dr. Decay—who is twelve feet tall and a slimy shade of green—shows up. But as it turns out, he's not that scary especially when Dr. Astrodent offers to fix Dr. Decay's dental problem—he has no teeth! Dr. Astrodent and his kids are able to find some common ground between healthy teeth and the dangers that Dr. Decay has always represented. Things calm down peacefully on Earth and in the Tooth Galaxy but considering Dr. Decay's past performance, can he really be trusted and how long can this truce continue?!
